

FACULTY OF MUSIC
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

THURSDAY NOON SERIES

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1990

Vidyadhar Vyas
Bombay University

A lecture/demonstration on Indian music

Vidyadhar Vyas holds a Master's degree in Sociology from Bombay University, and a Doctorate in Music from the Akhil Bharatiya Gandharva Mahavidyalaya Mandal, Bombay. A vocalist, researcher and scholar, he has recorded for Swarashree - CBS and Magnasound, and has written many articles for leading music journals. Dr. Vyas also devotes a great deal of time to formulating and implementing music education programs.

Dr. Vyas is presently head of the Music Department at Bombay University. He is, in addition, an honorary secretary and trustee of the Vyas Academy of Indian Music, a leading institution in Bombay founded by his father in 1937.

Walter Hall -- Edward Johnson Building
Admission Free
12:10 pm